2. Bible Work: Sir Francis Cromarty says about Phileas Fogg, "he would leave the world without having done any good to himself or anybody else." Read Matthew 25¹⁴⁻³⁰ and Luke 12¹³⁻²¹. How do these parables relate to what Sir Francis says?

Writing Activities

1. Write a description of the Parsee carnival in Bombay from Passepartout's point of view.
2. Produce an advertisement for a travel company for the journey from Bombay to Kholby. Remember to use persuasive and descriptive language.
3. Write the conversation between Fix and the director of the Bombay police as a play script. Remember to include stage directions.
4. Imagine that you are travelling round the world and have only a day to spend in Bombay. Research the city and produce an itinerary for your day. Give reasons for your choice of activities.

Additional Activities

Art/Craft India Make a batik hanging/cushion cover

Why not design an elephant like Kiouni? There are plenty of websites and Youtube videos on how to make Batik.

Cooking Bombay (India)

Akuri served on paratha or toast with Mango Lassi
(See recipe cards.)

Group Work

1. Complete quiz 2.
2. Share your research topic.
3. Discussion: Fix says about Passepartout, “besides, he’s a Frenchman, and can’t help talking.” What do we call statements which generalise about a group of people? Is it right? Does it make a difference that the author was French? Do you agree that French people ‘can’t help talking’?
4. Discussion: There is a saying, “Actions speak louder than words.” Are there any examples of this in these chapters? What do these actions say about the characters?
5. This book is being turned into a radio play. Produce the scene where Phileas Fogg buys the elephant. You could record this and add sound effects.
6. Watch Michael Palin’s “Around the World in 80 Days” Episodes 2 and 3 and note any differences in the route.
